Forecast for Sunday 31 Dec 2023

Weather: A showery day, perhaps a drier period during the morning but likely to remain rather dull and cloudy, showers becoming more frequent and heavier in the afternoon. Showers falling as rain but perhaps sleet or snow at the top of Whernside. Strong winds accompanying the showers will make it feel bitterly cold.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 40%, low cloud in association with showers throughout the day.

Low Cloud and visibility: Layers of scattered or broken cloud above 500m throughout the day, cloud will lift at times, perhaps more chance around northern hills. Visibility will be good outwith showers but dipping moderate as showers pass through, perhaps poor or whiteout conditions on the highest summits in sleet showers.
